REYNOLDS, David C. – Oconto Register, Oconto County, Nebraska, Thursday, June 27, 1918. D.C. Reynolds Killed in Auto Accident—Sunday afternoon at about 5 o'clock D.C. Reynolds, an old and highly respected citizen of Eddyville was killed when a Ford car which he was driving turned turtle pinning him beneath the steering wheel. Mr. Reynolds with Mrs. J. K. Guyton and granddaughter and Mrs. Jake Reynolds and baby were on their way to visit at the Walter Blakeslee home north of Eddyville. When about a mile north of Eddyville Mr. Reynolds in trying to keep the car from running over a steep bank seemingly lost control of it and the car skidded and turned over. The ladies and children were thrown clear of the car and were not injured. The accident happened not far from the Blakeslee home and the ladies rushed there and telephoned to town for help. When they returned to the car they found Mr. Reynolds dead. The car received only a broken top and windshield and it is a miracle how the other occupants escaped injury. Mr. Reynolds was an old soldier and was well known at Eddyville and Lomax. He has a host of friends who will receive the news of his untimely death with sorrowing hearts.
